

Università
Ca' Foscari
Venezia

Dipartimento di Filosofia
e Beni Culturali

1222-2022
800
ANNI

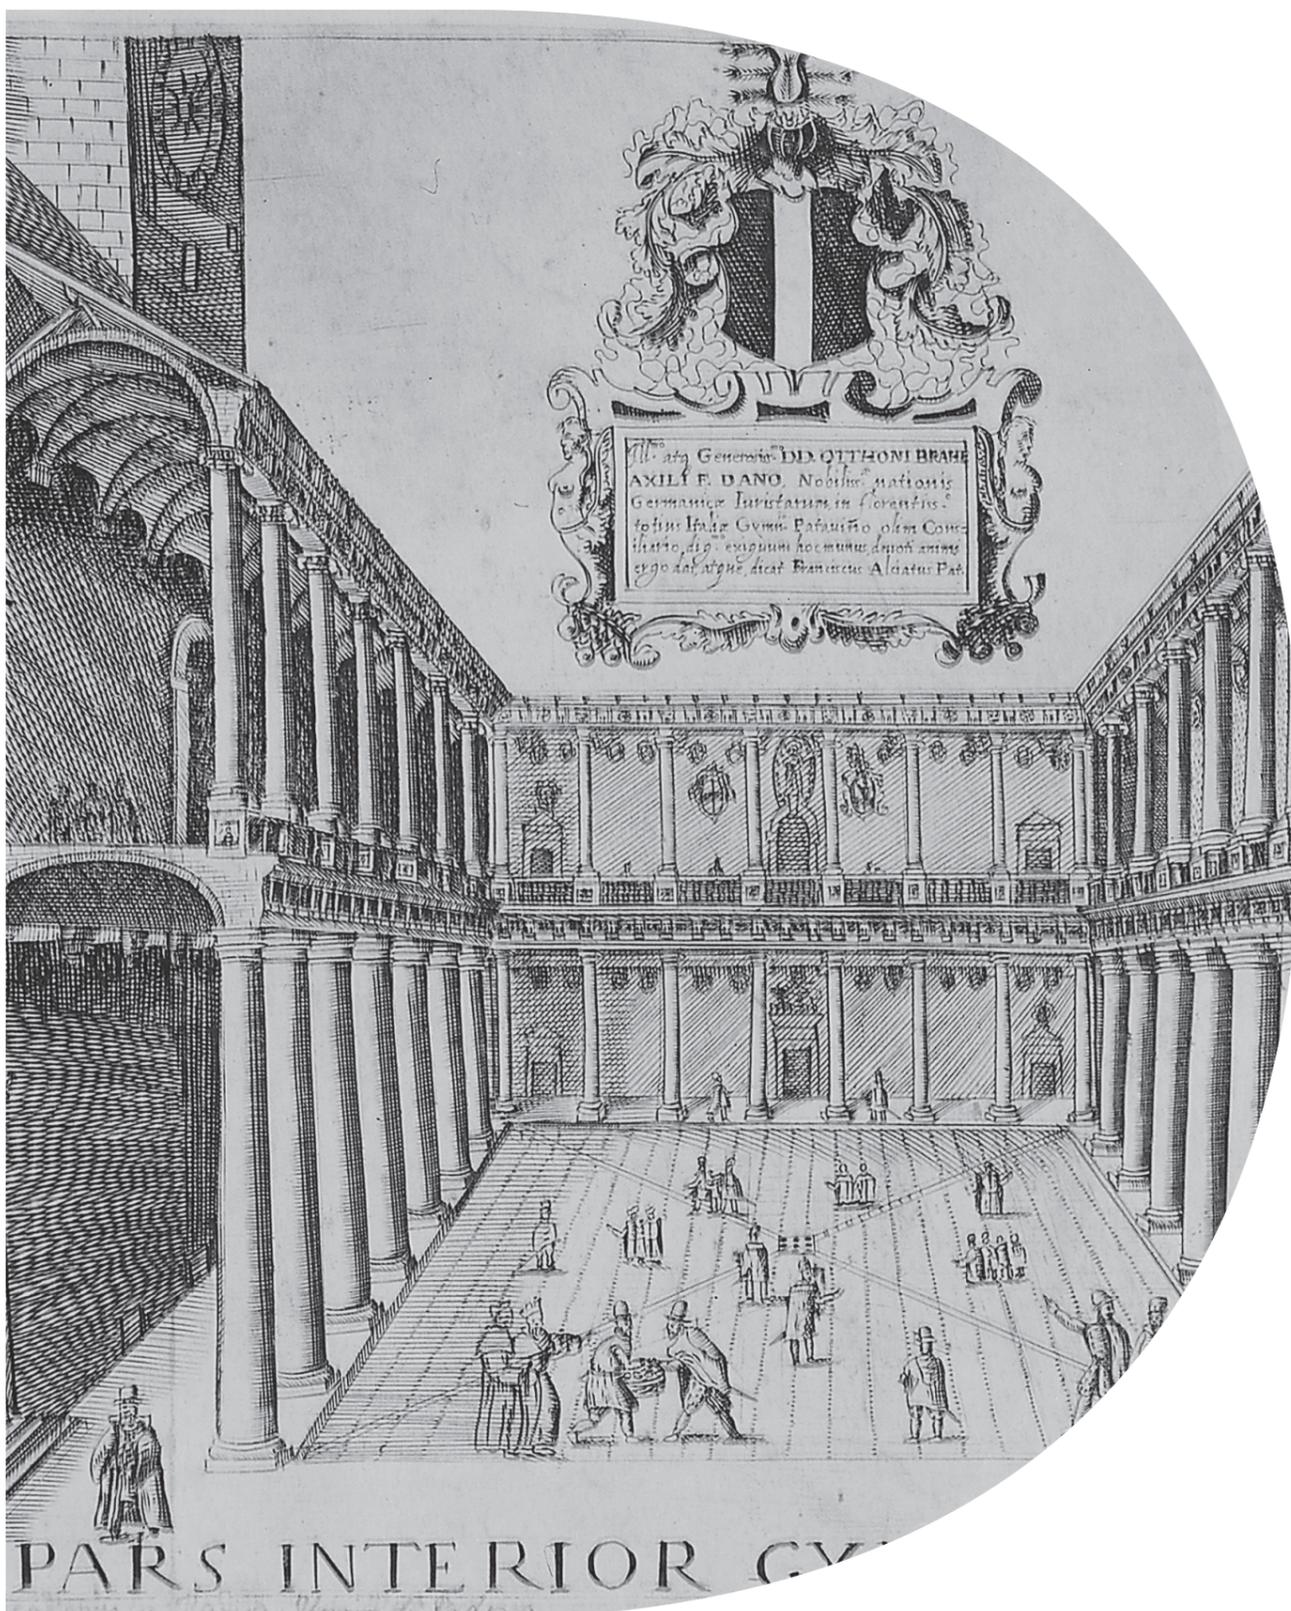

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI PADOVA

Centro per la storia dell'Università
di Padova

European Research Council

Scientific Cosmopolitanism in the University Culture of Early Modern Padua

12th-14th October 2022

Organizers:

Matteo Cosci,

David Malcolm McOmish

Pietro Daniel Omodeo

Day One - October 12th 2022

University of Padua, Palazzo Bo, Sala
Archivio Antico

13.30-14.00 Introduction to Conference

Marta Nezzo (Padua), *Institutional greetings and introduction to the
conference*

Vincenzo Milanese (Padua), *A
"European" History of the University of Padua*

14.00-15.30 SESSION 1. Padua:
University and its History

Dennj Solera (Bologna), Padua and its University: the Institutional Framework from the Middle Ages to the Early Modern Age

Matteo Cosci (Venice), Gaudeamus igitur: Collegiate and local studentship in early modern Padua

15.30-16.00 Coffee break

16.00-17.15 SESSION 2. Padua:
A Cosmopolis of Tradition and Innovation

Michel Engel (Hamburg), Jewish Contribution to the Translation and Circulation of Averroes' Commentaries on Natural Philosophy in and around the University of Padua (15th-16th Centuries)

Angela Axworthy (Berlin), Sacrobosco's De sphaera and the teaching of astronomy and cosmology at the university of Padua from the fifteenth to the early sixteenth century

17.30 Guided tour of historical Palazzo Bo and its Anatomical Theatre

Day Two: October 13th 2022

University of Venice, Ca' Foscari,
Malcantone, Aula Morelli

9.30-13.00 SESSION 3. The Nations, the East, and Specialist Knowledge

Francesco Scalora (Padua), Greek students at the University of Padua: cross-cultural interactions and evolving identities in the early modern age

Marie-Louise Leonard (Venice), Paduan Medical Knowledge and, the Establishment of Medical Culture in 17th century Edinburgh

Gabor Almasi (Innsbruck), *Central and Eastern Europeans at Padua:
a comparative view with a focus on medicine*

* optional excursion to the Jewish Ghetto

Day Three: October 14th 2022

University of Venice, Ca' Foscari,
Malcantone, Aula Morelli

9.30-11.00 Session 4. Specialist Knowledge circulation

Matteo Fornasier (Venice), Botanic gardens and academic culture at the University of Padua

Pietro Daniel Omodeo (Venice),
*The German Nation and cross-cultural exchange at the University
of Padua*

11.00-11.30 Coffee break

11.30-13.00 SESSION 5. A Tangled Web: Padua and Britain

Vittoria Feola (Padua), Natio Anglica and spy networks in early modern Europe.

David McOmish (Venice), Natio Scota, Government Agents, and Networks of Scientific Knowledge Exchange in King James' Britain

Lunch

15.30-17.00 SESSION 6. Patavina auctoritas: Practical Instruction and cultural appropriation

Tayra Lanuza Navarro (Venice),
From the Professors' mouth: the student experience of astronomical culture at the University of Padua

Stefano Gulizia (Milan), The export of learned Paduan sociability in Northern Europe: From the cabinet of curiosities in Enkhuizen to the Platonic 'deambulatio' in the Vettori-Caselius exchange

The conference is funded by the Marie Curie research project GA n. 844152 SN1604 (P.I.
M. Cosci) and by the research project ERC Consolidator GA n. 725883 Early Modern Cosmology (P.I. P.D. Omodeo)