KinHealth

ONE-DAY WORKSHOP
SOCIO-DEMOGRAPHIC PERSPECTIVES ON KINSHIP

KinHealth Final Event
October 10th - Palazzo della Salute, Padova

9.30   Welcome
10.00   Marco Tosi (University of Padua)
            Introduction

            Part 1: Demographic kinship structure
10.20   Martin Kolk (University of Stockholm)
            Households and kinship over the life course
            Discussant: Virginia Zarulli (University of Padua)
11.00   Break
11.20   Vera de Bel (University of Groningen)
            Complex kinship networks: Mapping the prevalence of step-kin
            Discussant: Marco Albertini (University of Bologna)

            Part 2: The quality of Kinship ties
12.00   Lisa Jessee (University of Cologne)
            Strangers in the family? Identifying the prevalence of 'hidden' kin and their predictors across kin type
            Discussant: Nicola Barban (University of Bologna)
12.40   Break
14.20   Saverio Minardi (University of Bologna)
            Is Blood Thicker Than Water? Comparing Social Support from Nuclear, Extended, and Chosen Families
            Discussant: Zafer Buyukkececi (Max Planck institute for Demographic research)

            Part 3: Kin support and obligations
15.00   Sha Jiang (Max Planck institute for Demographic Research)
            Intergenerational Support and Aging: Measuring Kin-Based Dependency in a Changing World
            Discussant: Marta Pittavino (Università Ca Foscari, Venice)
15.40   Break
16.00   Maria Francesca Morabito (University of Florence)
            Kinship Obligations in Nuclear and Extended family networks: A Vignette Study
            Discussant: Zafer Buyukkececi (Max Planck institute for Demographic research)

            Part 4: Kinship and health
16.40   Thijs van den Broek (Erasmus School of Health Policy & Management, Rotterdam)
            Prenatal Exposure to Maternal Grief from Sudden Loss of Close Kin and Adult Mental Health: Evidence from Sibling Comparisons
            Discussant: Bruno Arpino (University of Padova)
17.20   Damiano Uccheddu (University of UCL Louvain)
            Kinship Networks and mental health: evidence from a new online survey
            Discussant: Pietro Belloni (University of Padova)
18.00   Marco Tosi
            Conclusive remarks
18.20   Networking